Foreign participants are advised to travel either to Milano or Brescia.

Milano can be reached by plane from most countries or directly by train from European countries.

People arriving by plane at Orio al Serio airport (Bergamo, <http://www.sacbo.it>), where most low-cost flights land, can reach either Milano Centrale Railway Station by bus (€ 9,00) or Brescia Railway Station (€ 10) in about one hour. Please be advised that the bus leaves Orio al Serio airport for Brescia only at 5:10, 8:30, 11:15, 12:30, 16:20, 18:00, 22:00

(<http://www.sacbo.it/Editorial/newsCategoryViewProcess.jsp?editorialID=171>).

Gargnano can be reached from Milano Centrale Railway Station by train + bus, and from Brescia Railway Station by bus.

A train should be taken from Milano Centrale to Brescia. A timetable of trains can be downloaded from: <http://www.trenitalia.com>.

A bus should be taken from Brescia to Gargnano. The bus station in Brescia is just outside the Brescia Railway Station, on the left and there is a SIA sign. Buses leave Brescia for Gargnano every hour. The timetable of buses departing from Brescia to Gargnano on Sunday is the following: 7:10, 8:10, 8:45, 9:10, 10:10, 11:10, 12:10, 13:10, 14:10, 14:40, 15:10, 16:10, 17:10, 18:10. The trip takes about one hour and a half. Palazzo Feltrinelli is 5 minutes walking distance from the bus station in Gargnano. When you get off the bus at Gargnano, go straight down the main street until you see a red building which is Palazzo Feltrinelli. Should you need to ask for directions, make sure you ask for Palazzo Feltrinelli and not Villa Feltrinelli, as the latter is not the site of the venue.
