Participants

The school is targeted to 40 doctoral students and post-doctoral researchers in economics and related disciplines.

Early Stage Researchers and Experienced Researchers employed in the TOM network at the time of the summer school will cover their fee and travel expenses using their Participation Expenses budget. Former TOM Early Stage Researchers and Experienced Researchers are strongly encouraged to apply. There will be some funding available to cover their fee and travel expenses.

Applications and deadlines

The participants will be selected by the Selection Committee on the basis of the information included in the application forms. Applications can be downloaded from www.dagliano.unimi.it and should be submitted to centro.dagliano@unimi.it.

The deadline for submission is May 16, 2010. We invite applicants to keep strictly to the deadline. Applicants will be informed by email about the results by May 31, 2010.

Fees and Scholarships

Participants will be charged 550€ covering registration, accommodation, meals and background material. We hope to be able to offer a limited number of grants covering travelling expenses and fee waivers. The grants will be assigned with priority to students from Developing Countries.

Location

The school will take place at Palazzo Feltrinelli, on Lake Garda (Italy). This beautiful historical Villa is now owned by the University of Milan and is dedicated to Workshop and Meeting activities. Gargnano is a small resort village on Lake Garda, about 150 km east of Milan.

Local Information will be provided to participants in due course.
